

Four Corners Association for Behavior Analysis Third Annual Conference

April 16 - 17, 2010

Treasure Mountain Inn
Park City, Utah

Tentative Schedule

Friday, April 16

7:45-8:30 Continental Breakfast

8:30-8:40 Opening Remarks, Anne Kupfer, 4caba President (Arizona State University)

8:40- 9:30 Gregory Madden (University of Kansas)

The Relation between Impulsivity and Addictions: Interesting, but What Can Be Done About It?

9:30- 10:20 David Hatfield (Colorado Center for Behavioral Care and Developmental Behavioral Health, Inc)

Pursuing Insurance Coverage for Behavior Analytic Services: Lessons Learned in Colorado

Break

10:40- 11:30 Allen Neuringer (Reed College)

Operant Variability and Volition

Lunch (on own)

1:00-1:50 Michael Twohig (Utah State University)

Treatment of Anxiety Disorders with Acceptance and Commitment Therapy

1:50- 2:40 Charles Shimp (University of Utah)

The Human Side of Behavior Analysis

Break

3:40- 4:30 Linda Hayes (University of Nevada-Reno)

Reminiscing and Remembering

4:30—5:15 Allen Neuringer (Reed College)

Informal Discussion on Choice and Variability Research

5:15- 6:00 Business Meeting

8:00-10:00 Poster Session

Saturday, April 17

8:00- 8:50 Continental Breakfast

8:50- 9:40 Stephanie Peterson (Western Michigan University)
Choice-making Treatments for Problem Behavior in Children with Disabilities

9:40- 10:30 Scott Robinson (Idaho State University)
Environmental Contingencies and Associative Learning Before Birth

Break

10:50- 11:40 Tim Slocum (Utah State University)
Direct Instruction: Behavior Analysis Applied to Academic Instruction

11:40 Closing Remarks, Erin Rasmussen (Idaho State University)

For more information, contact: Erin Rasmussen (rasmerin@isu.edu) or www.4caba.org. For hotel reservations, visit <http://www.treasuremountaininn.com/bookings.html> or call 1-800-344-2460.

Note to exhibitors: Exhibits may be set up on the evening of April 15th and may continue until noon on April 17th.